In Front of Astarita and Judith Campbell in a Sensational Finish -R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Carbuncie Takes the Handiesp-Only Two Favorites Succeed.

seven races were run to-day, the star event being the $5,000 Alabama Stakes for twoyear-old fillies at five and one-half furlongs. It was a further test of the prowess of J W. Schorr's Judith Campbell, winner of the Flash Stakes last Monday, but this time she was not victorious. Still it was not a signal defeat, for she was third in a sensational finish in which J. R. & F. P. Keene's Duster. by Ben Brush-Lady Invercauld won by a head, with J. G. Follansbee's Astarita a head before Judith Campbell. The latter, though she took up 122 pounds, was a warm favorite in the betting at 8 to 5. senator P. McCacre, and his friends put enough sec v. ' choice . ' 13 to 5. Astarita was well L.c . 1 at eights, but Duster, generally quoted t 5 to 1, cou ! have been bought for as much 's 25 to 1. Eugenia Burch was the only witha awal, while A Featherstone added Mary o eet. W. C. Whitney's Girdle rushed off as pacemaker, closely followed by Astarita and Judith Campbell. At the half mile pole Girdle had enough, whereupon Duster joined the leaders. From that point to the wire It was anylady's race. In the last jump Duster gold in head in front much to the satisfaction of the bookmakers, who won a fortune on the result. The time was 1:10 4-5. The bandicap at a rule and a furious was the medium for a scorching of the ring by those who backed R. T. Wilson Jr.'s Carbuncle. The Stuyvesant selding was backed down to an even money favorite. Ten Candles made the running to the last furlong where Marvin, who rode a patient race on Carbunds, let nim down to a compara-tively east victory. The selling steeplechase over the short course went to M. J. Maloney's Sallust, second choice, who beat the favor-ite, Kufa, ridden out, by three lengths. Draughtsman refused the Jump in front of the stand, but was sent after his field only to bolt A second time, which put him out of the race. Nyne threw his rider, but was remounted

The fourth event for two-year-olds was cut to pieces. Catechise, the odds on favorite, led for four and a haif furiongs, but he threw it up there and Grey Friar, belonging to F. P. Hitchcock, won, ridden out, by four F. P. Hitchcock, won, rliden out, by four lengths in 1.114-5. The blue pencil reduced the field in the fifth race from seventeen to cir starters. This was for selling platers at a mile, with Senator Metarren's Potente the favorite Honeldu led from barrier to wire and won in a drive by a flose from Potente who was carried wide into the stretch by Burns. Honelulu was liberally backed at 5 to 1. He was run up to $1,500 by Sidney Hender, but was retained by an extra $5 bid.

Schopharie, the hot favorite in the sixth

Schoharie, the hot favorite in the sixth Schoharie, the hot favorite in the sixth event for maidens at six luriouss, finished far back in the ruck. Cassville led a greater part of the distance but was overhanled by Bar Le Duc, a 10 to 1 shot, in the stretch. Then August Belmont's Octoroon, second choice, got in a spurt, Bar Le Duc winning from her by a couple of lengths.

J. W. Schorr's smart hilly, Eva Russell, who was a strong favorite, won the first race, for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs, with comparative case. The Keene's Orloff, 15 to 1, riddon by an apprentice, easily took the place from M. F. Dwyer's heavily played second choice, Cheinnatus, Jockeys Lyne, Turner, Doggett, Wonderly and O'Connor were each fined $25 for misbehavior at the post. Only two favorites were successful.

TO EXTERMINATE THE TIPSTERS. Mr. Whitney Says They Will Be Suppressed

If It Takes a Million of Money. SARATOGA, Aug. 6 .- The war on the tipsters is being continued with vigor. After the passage of the village ordinance imposing a $150 license yesterday, Henry Schultz, the "tipster king." called a meeting of tip the "tipster king," called a meeting of the purveyors. They decided to ignore this measure, and this morning an audacious barker cried his wares before Mr. Whitney at the United States Hotel balcony.

A moment later a Pinkerton detective took the gayly garbed tipster in charge and he was marched up Breadway amid the leers more of the nawkers were arrested this morning and released on the promise that they would leave town by the next train. W. C. Whitney takes a decided stand on the tipster question. He said this morning:

"We intend to exterminate the tipster. He is a nuisance. We will force him away from Serakasa. (It is the said this morning).

WORCESTER, Aug. 6.—Hjalmar Lundin of this city made Harvey Parker look like a this city made Harvey Parker look like a selling plater in a wrestling match at the Worcester Theatre to-night. The conditions of the match were that Lundin should throw Parker twice in one hour at catch-ascatch-can. Lundin secured the first fall in 1945; minutes, and at the close of the bout Parker's face looked like a piece of raw beefsteak. In the second bout Lundin threw Parker to the mat in less than two minutes, but the fall was not allowed by the referee, George V. Tuohey of Cleveland.

Lundin did not object to the decision, and secured the third fall after three more minutes of wrestling. Several hundred dollars changed hands on the match, as Parker's supporters believed he could stay the limit.

Jones, the left fielder of the New York team, was guilty of an act of flagrant rowdy-ism at the Polo Grounds yesterday. When the New Yorks were in the West recently this the New Yorks were in the West recently this same player was put out of a game for abusive language to I myire Power. Yesterday he went further and struck at I mpire Emsile, trying to hit the veteran official who has served the League well for ten years, or to pull his mask off. This took place directly in front of the grand stand, close to the home plats, in the fifth inning. Jones had just filed out to Beaumont. He was angry, presumably, over a strike that had been called on him. As he walked in grumbling and got near the umpire the latter turned and was heard to say to Jones:

Play ball now or get out of the game.
Jones became abusive. Emsile exclaimed sharply:

"Play bail now or get out of the game."

Jones became abusive. Emslie exclaimed sharply:

You get out the grounds!"

At this Jones stepped closer to the umpire, who did not flinch, grabbed his arm and then swung his left at Emslie's face. It was not much of an effort, but was none the less inexcusable. Emslie's mask and cap fell off but he kept cool and did not retallate. Capt. McGraw, when Jones made such an exhibition of himself, ran up from his position on the coaching line, pulled Jones back, ordering him to move away. The offending player was hissed as he walked to the bench. He got his glove, went to the clubiouse and the scene was releved of his presence. Condemnation of his outbreak was expressed freely by specta ors who go to the grounds to see baseball, not fisticulfs. The offence fully merited suspension, and the New York club, without waiting for the League to take action, suspended Jones for the remainder of the season.

The New Yorks were once more shut out and once more next to powerless with the stick. The game was called in the sixth inning on account of rein. The Pirates made two more runs in that inning. Just one lonesome hit had been made by the Harlemites when rain intervened. It was a dull day and a dull game. When necessary to get men around the Pittsburgs did it some way. Jones's muff helped them to a run in the first. With the muff, singles by Leach and Bransfield and a base on balls, two Pirates tallied, which was an ample sufficiency. New York's nearest approach to a run was in the second inning, when Brodie singled with only one out. Jones, the welterweight, followed with an easy fly, as did Lauder. One other New Yorker reached first, McGiann, on a base on balls, but there his exploration ceased, so that not one of the locals reached second hase.

VICTORY FOR METEOR III. Emperor William's Yacht Wips Match Race

With Sybarita. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. Cowes, Aug. 6 .- The yacht races to-day opened with dismal weather. The first was a match race between Emperor Will-iam's Meteor III. and the Sybarita for a prize of £80, presented by the Royal Yacht Squadron. The yachts carried jackyarders and every stitch of available canvas. They were sent to the east over the Queen's course in a rainstorm that almost hid them

The Sybarita was leading at the start but when the Meteor reached past Cowes, at 11:30, she was sailing in grand style and apparently had a winning lead. The Sybarita followed over four minutes later. The race was stubbornly contested, the ern mark and was over two minutes ahead passing Ryde on the return to Cowes. The Meteor further increased her lead n the leg westward from Cowes, and on passing Ryde again was seven minutes ahead of the Sybarita. The Meteor won, finishing at 1:51:43

The Sybarita finished at 2:04:03. The chief event to-day was the race for the Kaiser's Cup. The yachts entered were the Leander, Cetonia, Glory, Cicely, Brynhild, Navahoe, Lygia, Columbine, Fiona, Leander II., Fiona II., Clara, Palmosa, Irex, Namara, Creole, Asthore and Bona. The yachts started over the old Queen's ourse to the eastward at 10:15. A rain storm was prevailing at the time and the mist almost completely obscured the yachts from view. The Bona, Creole, Namara and Navahoe were in the lead, with the Columbine and Cetonia bringing up the rear of the procession.

The yachts passed Ryde in close procession. There was a splendid breeze from the south. Off Stokes's Bay the Cicely led, with Navahoe second and Bona third. The yachts passed Cowes in the following order: Cicely, Navahoe, Clara, Bona, Brynhild, Irex. Namara, Cetonia, Leander and Columbine.

The Clara carried away her foretopsail and retired. The Cicely still held the lead as the yachts passed Ryde, with the Navahoe second and the Asthore third. The Irex, which was the fifth to finish.

won the Kaiser's Cup on time allowance The second and third prizes went to the Cetonia and the Columbine, respectively.

Miss Clara Thomas, the runner-up last Miss Clara Thomas, the runner-up last year yesterday had the better luck to win in the final for the J Kennedy Tod cup at the Innis Arden Goif Club Her opponent was Mrs Rajoh P Hinchman, who was defeated by 5 up and 3 to play. The cup has to be won twice to become the property of any player, but the winner receives a souvenir cup, and her name, with the date of the match, in learning of the match, in the control of the match.

CAPE MAY, Aug 6—In the race for the women's cups at the Cape May Golf Club the three best in each class are:

Class A—Mrs. J. Percival Collins, 14%; Miss Crow, 14 Miss Esther Houseart

MANCHESTER, Vt., Aug. 6.—There were over fifty entries for the open-handicap tournament for the Taconic and Ondawa cups, presented by Edward C. Orvis, begun on the Eawanok links here this morning. A heavy shower began just at the hour set for starting so that several withdrew, bringing the number of starters down to forty-two. The weather cleared soon and a hot sun came out, thoroughly drying the turf. The scoring in the eighteen-hole qualifying round at match play this morning was very good on the whole, the best net score qualifying being big. Dr. Clrak Burnham, W. G. Barnewall and W. Austin tied for the best gross score prizes at $2. They all played from scratch. The first round at match play for both cups furnished hotly contested matches. Jasper Lynch, scratch, and C. H. Clark, 2, had the hardest struggle. Clark won the extra hole. He will meet Dr. Burnham to-morrow.

Taconic Cup—Dr. Clark, Dyker Meadow, $2.

SOCIETY FOLK OUT IN FORCE TO SEE ASTOR TROPHY RACES.

Seaman Falls Overboard From the Schooner Quissetta and Is Drowned-Another Goes Overboard and Is Saved-Allsa Damaged While at Anchor After Race.

NEWPORT, Aug. 6.—The Elmina, owned by Frederick F. Brewster, won the Astor cup for schooners to-day and the yawl Ailsa. owned by H. H. Redmond, won the cup for single-masted vessels and rawls. The race was sailed in a strong wind that came from the southeast by south at the start, but soon afterward hauled to the south and at the finish was from the southwest. There were three starters in the schooner class and six in the sloop and yawi classes. Only one carried a club topsail throughout the race. They were sent over what is called the Vineyard Sound Lightship course, which is thirty-eight miles in length and the change in the wind

The first of the welcome. The muriel was the welcome shipmate, who was swimming toward the buoy, while the yacht was being put about in order to pick him up. When Chris was a few feet from the buoy he suddenly threw his hands in the air and sank and was not seen again. The Quissetta sailed about for some time, those on board hoping to find the sailor, but finally had to give up the search and the yacht returned to the harbor. No one on board the Quissetta knew anything about the man except that he was a Nor-

A sailor also fell overboard from the sloop Weetamoe, but was picked up, and another man, the steward, Martin Simmons, fell from the Mineola. He was in the water for several minutes and the dinghy had to be lowered to pick him up. When he went overboard he had the capstan bar in his hand and this saved him from drowning, as he could not swim The bar gept him affoat until he was picked

The Weetamoe and the Neola, the two new 60-footers, entered for the race. The Weetamoe broke the quartering on the quadrant of her steering gear and had to retire. The Neola went out to the lightship, but Mr Pynchon, her owner, decided that the weather was a little too heavy for his yacut to make a good showing, especially as the Alisa was on hand to start, and he sailed back to the harbor. The Regatta Committee, S. Nicholson Kane, Newbury D. Lawton and Edward H. Wales, were on board the Nourinahal and Col. Astor entertained a large party of Newporters.

There was an interested following of Staten Islanders yesterday afternoon at Fox Hills for the first half of the home-and-home match between the rival professionsis, Isaac Mackie of Fox Hills and John Pearson of the Richmond County Country Club. The men are playing for a subscription purse and there is much local feeling over the outcome. Mackie was 2 up at the end and will start in with this lead this afternoon for the second eighteen holes at the Dongan Hills links.

The match was over before the storm, so that there was nothing to mar the scoring bar the heaviness of the valley putting greens. Spinnakers were set to port for the four-and-a-half-mile run to the next mark. The Muriel overhauled the Elmina and at 1:23, took the lead again, passing the kimina on the starboard side. The run was soon over, and as they neared the Hen and Chickens lightship spinnakers were taken in and stowed away. There was no change in order of the sloops, but the Yankee had gained a little on the Alisa and Rainbow and left the Mineola a little. miles in length and the change in the wind enabled the yachts to lay their course without making a tack and consequently the race was a very fast one. As or cup day at Newport is one of the most important of the season. The two trophies are given annually for yachts of the New York Yacht Club to compete for by Col. John Jacob Astor and to wish one of the trophies is the ambition of all yachtsmen. The schooner prize is worth $1.000 and the other $500.

Although the day was a brilliant one so far as the sport was concerned and the yachts raced for the championshipt, some accidents marred the day's pleasure. The schooner Quissetta had entered for the race. She is owned by S. C. Davis of St. Louis and was at the starting line when the preparatory signal was made on board Col. Dedhams Have an Easy Time With Saratogas on a Muddy Field.

SARATOGA, Aug. 6 .- On a muddy field this afternoon, the Dedham team in the second event for the Hitchcock cups, a handicap match, by hustling team work, easily de-feated the Saratoga team. The score was 21 to 10% in favor of the Dedhams. The Saratogas were no match for their opponents. The game formed part of the annual tourna-ment of the local club. The line-up and handicaps were as follows:

Saratogas-1, R. W. Smith, 2: 2, Seward Carry, 3, C. C. Rumsey, 4, back, E. L. Smith, 3, Total, 12. Total, 12.
Dedhams-1, Allan Forbes, 6; 2, Joshua Crane, 6; 3, E. W. Hamilin, 3; back, W. H. Goodwin, 6. Total, 21.

The Saratogas won only two good goals and that was in the first period, and penalties were allowed for safeties against Cary of the Saratogas in the first and third periods. The Dedhams captured everything in the second, third and fourth periods. A more one-sided game could scarcely be imagined. The team work of the defeated team was sadly defective while some of the individual work was good. The Dedhams played an exceedingly strong game, which was carried to the limit at 7 o'clock this evening. The final score:

Saratoga, 1016. Earned goals, 2: by handicap,

The race was won by the Quakeress, the champion of the last two years, sailed by her owner. W. F. Harrison. It was late in the afternoon when the start was hade the course being a dead beat to windward of three miles and return, twice over the course. The Quakeress was the first to class the line, which position she held to the finish.
